

BEAUTIFUL LIFE

Words and Music by Lars Nolte, Sebastian Monse and Lars Bilke

Your first day at school begun with a hit in your face by your friends
You were alone cause you didn't feel a sheltered protecting hand Twelve painful years, twelve years with violence and without pluck
You had to keep a lot of kicks but you never want to give up

You killed your mother, you killed your father, you ripped your neighbour and your wife You shut your son and your daughter too and the kids of your friends are orphans now You blew up the school, you burned your job, you hang up your boss at the highest tree You win a fight which you just could lose and now your soul will ever be free...

Your daddy was always drunken and sometimes he raped you at night
Your mother was a whore her mind and her body was added to age

You earned a lot of money because you were working hard
The other workers mobbed you every day and you canceled this job
Your neighbour fucked your wife and sometimes your daughter too
Your son was disabled born and one day you know what to do
