

LIFETRIP

Words and Music by Patrick Scheibe

Stop, my bags are packed my mind is free
my eyes wide open
just hot to see
the great wide world
the special things
of human life
and what it brings to me as long as this trip goes on

and my eyes still can't see
the end of this road
of what I can see
Just try to shock
you can try to attack
I won't let you win
I will never step back

Hey, just look at me
just see me fight
the little things
of my life
It wasn't easy
and won't never be
I'm not getting lazy
And I'm free

and my eyes still can't see
the end of this road
of what I can see
Just try to shock
you can try to attack
I won't let you win
I will never step back
